HUNTER gets hunted !

A group of five persons had gone to hunt wild boar at Jayapura in the taluk and one man was found dead

Mysuru, Jan.22 (RK&KS)- A middle-aged man, who was part of a five-member hunting group, was found dead with bullet injuries in the forest area near Harohalli, Jayapura hobli in the taluk this morning. The deceased has been identified as Shivannegowda (50), son of Javaregowda, a resident of Kaniyanahundi in H.D. Kote taluk. He was working as a labourer.

Villagers gather at the spot where a man was found dead with bullet injuries at a forest area in Jayapura hobli this morning.

It is reported that three persons from Heggur and two from Kaniyanahundi had gone to the forest area to hunt wild boars at about 8.30 pm.

This morning, some passersby, who found the body of Shivannegowda with bullet injuries, alerted Jayapura Police, who rushed to the spot, conducted mahazar and registered a case. Tracks of Shivannegowda being dragged behind a bike and bruises on his body was found, it is learnt.

Kareem Rauther, Circle Inspector of Mysuru South Police Station, who too visited the spot, said that, it is yet to be ascertained whether the person was killed in the firing by the poachers or from the Forest Department personnel and added that the Police were investigating in all directions.

Meanwhile, the body of Shivannegowda has been shifted to MMC&RI mortuary in Mysuru for post-mortem. More details are awaited.

Sale of Malaysian sand by MSIL delayed in city

Mysuru, Jan.22 (RKB&NNN)- The sale of the much-publicised Malaysian sand by Mysore Sales International Limited (MSIL) for builders and public in the city from today has been delayed.

The MSIL has still to make arrangements to sell the Malaysian sand as the load had first arrived in Visakhapatnam, then transported to Mangaluru Port from where it was moved to Bidadi and from there it will be moved to Mysore New Goods Terminal (MNGT) Station in Mysuru, said a source in MSIL, speaking to Star of Mysore this morning.

There are many formalities involved and just because it is announced that this sand will be on sale from today (Jan.22) how can we sell the sand when it has still not arrived at all in Mysuru, he asked. The first consignment of the Malaysian sand is likely to arrive in city by next week.

The first requirement is Period for Registration of Importers Dealer's Licence, which has a validity of five years from the date of issuance called the Minimal Discharge Transporter Licence Permit, which has to be obtained.

Then an importer or dealer, who intends to transport the sand, should apply for CMDP (Computerised Mineral Discharge Permit) Licence. The dealers should register in the ILMS (Integrated Lease Management Service) at the Department of Mines and Geology.

After all this, the dealers should obtain SSPP (Special Security Permit Paper) of Rs.10 per trip sheet and obtain movement dispatch permit to transfer sand. The imported sand shall be sold only in 50 kg bags at a cost of Rs.200 per bag, while a ton of sand costs Rs.4,200 in city, he said.

City buses to stop at Mandakalli Airport

Mysuru, Jan.22 (RK&NNN)- The city buses plying to Nanjangud will stop at the Mandakalli Airport in Mysuru to benefit the airport passengers. This decision was taken at the Aerodrome Committee and Airfield Environment Committee review meeting, here this morning.

DC D. Randeep chairing a review meeting at Mysore Airport today.

Deputy Commissioner D. Randeep, who chaired the meeting, held twice in a year, at the Mysore Airport premises, said that in spite of the demand for a stop at the Mysore Airport, since a long time, nothing had been done in this regard. "I suggest that the buses drive into the airport, drop the passengers and leave," he said.

However, the KSRTC Assistant Traffic Manager H.D. Dinesh Kumar, who was also present, said that it would not be possible to take the bus inside the airport. "Instead we can provide a bus stop and even a bus shelter opposite the airport, where the passengers can alight," he said.

The meeting discussed the issue about constructing an alternative gate for the VVIP movement and other emergencies. "The movement of the VVIPs like the President, Prime Minister, Vice-President, Chief Minister and other dignitaries are hampered as there is only one Main entry gate to the airport. Hence, a separate gate will be constructed at an estimated cost of Rs.8.7 lakh," the DC said directing the officials of PWD to build the gate. Randeep wondered why no action had been taken regarding the ramping up of the security at the Airport with an ACP ranked officer posted. "This issue was discussed in the last meeting too and nothing has been done about it," he said and added that a letter would be written to the Police Commissioner and the DG to take up the issue immediately.

Regarding the issue of the expansion of the runway by 150 metres, he said that land has to be acquired for the expansion and there should be open space on either side of the 150 metre. "Nothing has happened in this regard and if KIADB and PWD writes to me, I will follow it up," the DC said.

On the disposal of garbage and combing operations to counter the menace of dogs, wild pigs and other animals, he asked the Forest Department officials to see that the branches of the trees hanging out over the Airport compound from which the animals make their way into the airport land should be trimmed. He also directed them to remove the beehives in the area that could lead to problems.

Mysore Airport Director Manoj Kumar Singh, Assistant Director Sankarnarayan, MUDA Superintending Engineer B.K. Suresh Babu, MCC Health Officer Dr. Ramachandra, KR ACP N.M. Dharmappa and others officials were present at the meeting.

Tourism ⇌ Saboteurism (?)

Liberty has been taken in this column to coin an unfamiliar term in the caption above to drive home a point of considerable relevance and importance to the country in general and its people in particular, fully aware of the fact that the English language lexicon has not yet included it but in the hope that at a date in future the term may eventually join the rest of the hundreds of thousand words in noun, adjective, verb or any other parts of speech that teachers of English grammar used to teach years ago in elementary schools across the country. Feeling confident that the readers of this daily in particular, who are heard ungrudgingly declaring as its addicts, may not have serious objection not only for exercising liberty of using a not-yet-in-usage term but also clubbing together visitors, read tourists to our land and saboteurs, the much-glorified pseudo-economic activity called tourism, which is touted as a prosperous industry and also has Ministers in charge of that portfolio in both the Union government and various State Governments, including Karnataka. The many clear positives of tourism, being highlighted by speakers of all hues on many platforms should not make one blind to many negatives of the industry. The debating point is which one set of these two sides (of the same coin!) scores over the other in a trade off.

Pages of history portray events of visitors to our land during several centuries in the past reading which can be undoubtedly fascinating on different counts. Alexander the Great (356-323 BC), the ambitions conqueror, Fa-Hien and Hiuen Tsang (4th century), the celebrated Chinese travellers whose recordings throw light on life in the country of the past, Babur (15th century), who founded the Mughal Empire in India, Robert Clive (1725-1774), who established the political and military supremacy of the East India Company leading to British Raj are names of conspicuous visitors to India that flashes across one's mind.

While the kind of visitors featured above, as a random sample of the galaxy of distinguished visitors to our land, which also includes many scholars of excellence, philosophers of eminence and leading lights of their days in different fields such as music, art, dance, sports, literature, education, healthcare, movies, State craft and what have you carried with them and also left behind long-lasting positives, the land got battered by the many most undesirable kind of visitors in the past whose iconoclastic acts cannot but be described as negatives of tourism. Destruction of sculptures of rare quality, planned shut down of enterprises with artisans of many skills that have gone into pages of history of India, aggressive as well as hidden assault on the long-standing cultural practices that bound the people of different regions together and so on have been the unquestionable negatives.

Vainglorious claims are being made in official declarations about India hosting the highest number of visitors from abroad. The nation's administrative machinery is palpably wanting in the task of ensuring that saboteurs don't infiltrate into the country, unlike the stiff protocol followed in various countries abroad, such as Israel, China and USA. But for the limited space of this column, many more negatives of tourism could be listed to drive home the point of tourism assuming the face of saboteurism on the sly.

SHOW LOVE, GET INVESTMENT: At an event in Salboni, West Bengal, on the eve of the Bengal Global Business Summit 2018, State Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee had explained to her audience the formula to attract investment to the State. "The more love and affection we show to our investors, the more they will invest here," she had said. As things stood at the end of the two-day Summit in Kolkata, that "love and affection" appears to be worth Rs. 2.19 trillion — that's the value of investment committed to the State by some participants at the event. — In Business Standard.

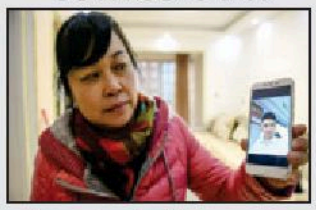
Gadgets for babies bowel movements

Tokyo: From the country that gave us the delightful classic children's book 'Everyone Poops,' comes a new app that will let everyone know when you're toddler goes potty. The Unko Button, made by 144Lab, is a small box with two buttons that, when pressed, instantly share the news that you're little one has made a poo with a designated chat group on Line, popular messaging app in Asia.

"Unko" is the Japanese equivalent of the English word "poo," hence the name of the gadget. The developers claim that the device is ideal for busy parents who need an easy way to record their infant's digestive system but don't have time to stop and write down each bowel movement. In addition to notifying the chat group, the Unko Button also records a series of details such as the exact date and time of the expulsion or whether the child pooped or peed. It even has options to record notes regarding colour, consistency, and the baby's mood. The connected app is also able to estimate the cost of diapers based on how often the child defecates or urinates.

Finally truth comes out!



Chengdu: A former nanny in China recently confessed to abducting a boy from her employers in Chongqing and raising him as her own son for the past 26 years. He Xiaoping, 48, from Nanchong, in southwest China's Sichuan Province, confessed the kidnapping to local authorities, last August. Police have been investigating her story ever since, but are unable to open a criminal case based solely on her claim. Police have entered Liu's information into China's database of missing people, but as of yet, there are no matches. Oddly, there are also no Police records of a missing boy in Chongqing from 1992. Xiaoping said she will continue to search for Liu's biological family regardless and has accepted that she will serve jail time when she locates them. Huang Ziqiang, a lawyer from Chongqing Exceedon and Partners Law Firm, said that if the case is real, Xiaoping could face a sentence of up to five years in jail according to the 1979 criminal law.

Is Mysuru City geared up for No.1 tag?

Sir,

MCC claims that it is going to implement waste segregation system strictly but Pourakarmikas do not have any facility to segregate the wastes. They dump the wastes together even if we segregate wet and dry.

MCC issued paper statements several times on levying fine on citizens carrying plastic carry bags. How much fine have they collected so far?

Many citizens' complaints are being closed without really addressing them. So MCC is bothered only on closing complaints and not really fixing the problem. I had given a complaint on a two-year-old open drainage problem several times in my area. Even recently, I sent RTI request about this, but I did not get any reply from MCC till date.

How many MCC officials go on rounds in the morning? That is the time people dump maximum wastes on streets. Shop-keepers keep the wastes outside their shops at night and by morning, there is a complete mess around these shops as they are scattered by stray animals.

Probably, Mysuru got clean city tag only because all other cities were worst than Mysuru until now. MCC will have to do much more to achieve clean city tag and hope they will take this issue seriously.

MCC has only one phone number for complaints and we have to call several times to register a complaint.

UK resident paints Gokulam Park compound, wins many hearts

Dusan Drhlik from Buckingham is seen painting the Golden Jubilee Park compound at Gokulam First Stage.

Residents of Gokulam felicitate Dusan Drhlik for his clean initiative.

Mysuru, Jan. 22 (BCT)- A foreigner was so impressed by a park in the city that he has painted its walls and inner areas out of his own money. He came to the city to learn yoga and was here for over three months. He has now returned to his country but has left his mark in Mysuru by beautifying the park.

This is the story of Dusan Drhlik from Buckingham, who had come to Mysuru to learn yoga as he had heard about yoga's healing properties. A resident of Second Woodhill Court, Woodside Road in Buckinghamshire in the United Kingdom, Dusan stayed at Gokulam for over three months as he had enrolled at a yoga school for a short-term course.

He used to visit the Golden Jubilee Park in Gokulam First Stage, Fifth Cross near Shanimahatma Temple. So impressed was he with the park and its breezy environment, Dusan decided to paint its walls and the children's play area including the equipment that the children used to play.

A painter by profession, he decided to do his bit to the city. He purchased the required paints and brushes and got on to the job. First he painted the boundary walls and grills of the park and next he painted the interiors. It took five days for him to complete the works.

Dressed in clothes that had paint stains, Dusan used to come to the park in the morning after his yoga session and would not leave the place before he concluded painting one particular stretch by evening.

"Often I came to the park and I liked the surroundings, especially its breezy surroundings. It is an ideal place to walk. I thought about beautifying the park in the area that has taught me basic yoga and I decided to paint as I am a painter by profession," Dusan said.

Seeing a foreigner painting the walls of the park, a few residents felicitated him.

"Dusan has set an example for all of us to keep our surroundings clean. His act of painting the Golden Jubilee Park at a time when Mysuru is gearing up to top the Swachh Survekshan rankings is really appreciable," said Bharat, a resident of Gokulam.

Another resident Prakash said that Dusan, had earned a special place in the hearts of Gokulam residents, especially the morning and evening walkers who can now stroll inside the park amidst beautiful walls and green surroundings.

Dusan has left to Buckinghamshire and is expected to return to the city in the next couple of months for another session of yoga.

BJP workers mob Nazarbad Police Station

Mysuru, Jan. 22 (SBD&DM)- Accusing the Police of assaulting three of its leaders, BJP activists mobbed Nazarbad Police Station here last evening.

City BJP Yuva Morcha President Gokul Govardhan, who is also an advocate, party leaders Harsha and Nithin, had been to Nazarbad Police Station to lodge a complaint alleging that one Chinnathambi was illegally using a parcel of land belonging to MUDA in Ittigegud as vehicle parking space, when the Police are said to have assaulted the three and locked them up.

Soon as the news spread, hundreds of BJP activists mobbed the Nazarbad Police Station and demanded the suspension of PSI Yellalinga and other Police personnel.

MP Pratap Simha, who arrived at the Police Station after learning about the incident, said that the Police had assaulted BJP leaders for no reason.

The Police, in order to hide their act, had switched off the CCTV camera inside the Police Station, he alleged and demanded action against the errant Policemen. After Pratap Simha left, Minister Tanveer Sait and MLA Vasu, who were passing by, stopped at the Police Station after seeing the huge crowd.

BJP activists protesting at Nazarbad Police Station last evening.

Tanveer Sait pacified the agitated BJP workers, saying that action will be taken against the Policemen, if they were found guilty.

BJP General Secretary M.V. Ravishankar, City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath, leaders Rajendra and H.V. Rajeev and other top leaders arrived at the Police Station and discussed the matter with DCP N. Vishnuvardhana.

Later BJP workers formed human chain at Nazarbad Circle to register their protest and dispersed from the spot only after the Nazarbad Police released the three leaders late night.

DCP N. Vishnuvardhana said that PSI Yellalinga, Gokul Govardhan and Mysuru Bar Association have lodged separate complaints and action will be taken after a probe.

The SP had instructed the Police officials to create awareness against the practise and its consequences besides directing the officials to initiate legal action if the farmers fail to abide to the warning.

K.R. Pet, Jan. 22 (NG&KS)- Five members of a family from Bengaluru, who were on their way to Sri Bhu Varahanatha Swamy Temple at Ganjigere Kallahalli in the taluk, has a miraculous escape, when the car in which they were travelling caught fire after running over millet straw which was strewn on the road for threshing by farmers near Rajenahalli village yesterday.

According to the Police, Dr. Santhoshi, a lecturer, residing at Yelahanka in Bengaluru, was travelling with her mother Sowbhagya, son Abhay, sister Malathi and Malathi's son Phaneesh to offer puja at Sri Bhu Varahanatha Swamy Temple at Ganjigere Kallahalli in the taluk.

When they neared Rajenahalli, a stretch of road there was strewn with heaps of millet straw for threshing and the car had to move on those millet straw as there was no other place. In the process, some straw got stuck to the wheel of the car and caught fire which was not noticed by the occupants of the car.

Meanwhile, some youths, who noticed the fire, chased the car on their bikes to some distance and alerted the driver, who immediately stopped the car and the occupants jumped out of the car resulting in minor injuries to them.

Some passersby informed the Fire Brigade personnel, who rushed to the spot and managed to douse the fire. But, the car was completely charred.

Dr. Santhoshi later lodged a complaint with the Police, following which, Circle Inspector Venkateshaiah, Rural Police SI K.N. Girish visited the spot and have registered cases against farmers who had strewn millet crops on the road for threshing.

It is learnt that the car worth about Rs. 5 lakh and Rs. 5,000 cash kept in the car was destroyed in the fire.

It may be recalled that on Dec.25, a couple of cars and SUVs were involved in a series of accidents at Shiramalli near Yelamathur Gate (Handpost-N. Begur Road) on the H.D. Kote Road as they crashed into one another when the drivers lost control over their vehicles.

As the vehicles passed the crop-laden roads, they skidded and due to dust they could not see the vehicles that were moving ahead, resulting in accidents. Enraged after seeing their damaged cars, vehicle owners set the sheaves on fire. A complaint was filed at the H.D. Kote Police Station by some car owners.

Prosperous home décor for the Year-2018

Place in a vase fresh flowers or figurines of pair of birds like magpie or high flying birds at South to support relationship and romance luck

Moving into the year 2018 many would either introspect on the past year or look forward to a better year.

The year 2018 would be a relatively smooth and better year and the energies would not be conflicting. It is a harmonious year when compared to the earlier years. However, the year calls for a lot of efforts and concentration to achieve aspirations and one cannot take a laid back approach. The year will also make people put aside their differences and come together especially to achieve common goals. Issues like global warming and earth related matters may seem to be the focus and past beliefs on fertilisers, chemicals and their effects may be point of focus.

Work on current projects and business deals will fructify in the coming year. With plenty of resources in store, a creative approach both on personal, relationship, love, job and business would be needed. Planning things meticulously ensures success in 2018 and for those who stick to plans will see great success in the 2nd half of the year. However, the beginning of the year and the month of January would be special this year as it will have two full moons in a single month known as Blue moon (A blue moon is an additional full moon that appears in a subdivision of a year: Either the third of four full moons in a season, or a second full moon in a month of the common calendar). The year 2018 has in its very beginning a blue moon on Jan.31. We often use the word "Once in a blue moon" implying rare phenomenon hence the year 2018 will be prosperous and rare so make the most of it.

Primarily focus on the following to invite the New Year by cleaning up the area in the vicinity of main door and lobby. Place bowl of salt in four corners of the house prior to New Year and take it off and cleanse the space on the eve of the New Year.

Placing a red wall hanging or décor in the lobby close to main door ushers in a prosperous start. A peace lily plant at East of Living room gives the kick start to the year ahead.

By adapting simple home décor and changes you can activate the prosperity and have a smooth sailing year ahead. Colours like white, gold, blue and black are quite supportive in general for the year 2018.

• Primarily ensure absolute absence of clutter especially main door and bedrooms. Also ensure your space has fresh air with a vibrant quality to it. Decorating with air purifying plants is the easiest Feng Shui way to keep the energy active, space vibrant and "wealth-ready" to usher in prosperity; • Pictures of sea view, water element based décor like blue and black in the East activates prosperity; • Lamps, Dragon-headed Tortoise figurines and décor implying Fire colours of red and orange ushers in mentor and benefactor luck when placed at Northeast; • Wooden furniture and décor in Green or even healthy plant at Northwest can mitigate fatigue; • Heavy metal artefacts' or décor in white and gold at Southeast can balance fluctuating emotions; • Place in a vase fresh flowers or figurines of pair of birds like magpie or high flying birds at South to support relationship and romance luck; • Place at North of living or your bedroom your wallet or wealth box/piggy box and drop a coin daily into it.

Gentle Shower and Vibrant Downpour at Articulate Fest

An evening of Lithuanian and Karnataka Folk Tradition

ICCR, Ministry of External Affairs, in collaboration with Articulate Festival, Mysuru and Vidya Vikas Educational Trust, presented Lithuanian and Karnataka Folk Music and Dance traditions on Jan.16 at the Premier Studios Convention Centre in Jayalakshmipuram.

The first half was that of the European country whose presentation was as gentle and elegant as their demeanour was, the second half being typically colourful and vibrant. It was like a gentle rain to begin with and ended in thunderous downpour in the mid-January, a befitting event to celebrate Sankranti, the celebration of nature and its bounty.

The Lithuanian group called RATILIO and Karnataka group Adi Dravida Smskruti Kala Thanda were unique in the sense that neither of them were professional folk artistes of their respective region but their intense passion towards their culture was seen in their presentation.

While the RATILIO group comprised students pursuing academics at the Vilnius University of Lithuania, learnt their folk traditions to perfection to form the group, Vilnius University Folklore Ensemble, the Adi Dravida group, children of the pourakarmikas of Mysuru and surroundings, were brought together to be trained in the folk culture of their region. Both gave an impressive performance for two-and-a-half hours, enthralling the audience.

The name RATILIO nearly means CIRCLE; in India, the word RAAS means CIRCLE, it's amazing to see the folk culture similarities, for all folk dances of the world are predominantly based in the fashion of circular movement. In fact, one need not be extremely trained in the art, but just join the group, follow and experience the joy of celebration of life. RATILIO drew inspiration from the mountains and rivers, the bears and goats, to romance and attitudes, using simplest of the instruments, sang in choir and chores, danced firstly for themselves experiencing the joy that the audience picked up infectiously and joined them with clapping of hands. The Adi Dravida group dwelled in all their rusticity, immersed in religious fervour and experienced a spiritual euphoria to the beats of variegated drums that spread amongst the audience.

The entire RATILIO group elegantly attired in their national dress entered the stage, meandered between songs and dance interspersed with instrumental music both stringed and wind, gave a seamless performance while the Adi Dravida group came in groups, danced vibrantly in 8 segments. Ratilios songs were inspired from the shouts of the herd boys to the military commands, the feeling of love and show offs while Adi Dravidas' repertoire took us on a folk journey across Mysuru, South Canara and Shivamogga districts.

Venugopal, Director, ICCR Bengaluru, coordinated the ensemble of Lithuania while Sreenivas Kappanna mentored the children of pourakarmikas, Mysore B. Nagaraj presented the programme with élan.

Dining Hall inaugurated at Government School in Medar Block

Star of Mysore Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy, who inaugurated the dining hall for the Government School at Medar Block in city this morning, is seen with MLA Vasu, DDPI Manjula, Corporators D. Nagabhushan, Prashanth Gowda and M. Ramesh, Industrialist S.K Dinesh and others.

Mysuru, Jan. 22 (PM&DM)- A newly-built Dining Hall at Government High School, Medar Block, Bamboo Bazar, was inaugurated this morning.

Speaking after inaugurating the Hall, Star of Mysore Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy said that it was a very special programme as it benefited a large number of students.

Highlighting the role of teachers and cooks in proper maintenance of the building, Ganapathy observed that cooks had to be extra careful and cook food like they are cooking for their own children.

Pointing out that there was no greater asset than education, he said that education comes first and money later.

Calling upon the students not to discontinue education midway, he stressed that in the present world education is the greatest strength for a young man looking for a job.

Complimenting the good work done by area Corporator D. Nagabhushan, Ganapathy suggested the Legislators to utilise the Legislator's Local Area Development Funds in the most appropriate manner.

MLA Vasu, in his address, said that the dining hall has been built at a cost of Rs. 25 lakh out of his Local Area Development Fund.

Stating that Medar Block was one of the oldest localities of Mysuru, he said that the block was once called a slum area as it was dotted with huts, in which the working class lived. But the area has greatly transformed itself, with many developmental works being taken up in the past four-and-a-half years of Congress government.

Explaining the development works taken up in his Chamaraja Assembly segment, Vasu said plans were afoot to establish a Government Science PU College, for which a suitable site is being looked for.

Corporator D. Nagabhushan said that the dining hall has a built up area of 55x24 ft. and was constructed by Nirmiti Kendra.

Stating that a lot of developmental works have been taken up in Medar Block out of the Chief Minister's special grant for the city, he said that MUDA has granted Rs. 6.5 crore for development of neighbouring Yadavagiri.

Several BPL card beneficiaries of Medar Block were distributed LPG stoves and cylinders out the MCC grant on the occasion.

KSOU students threaten to disrupt BJP's Parivartana Yatra in city

Mysuru, Jan.22 (RKB&NNN)- The aggrieved students of Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) have threatened to lay siege to the 'Parivartana Yatra,' being organised by the BJP in Mysuru on Jan.25 if the UGC (University Grant Commission) does not grant recognition to the University.

The aggrieved students, led by A.S. Nandeesh, Muneer Pasha, Naveen and R. Veeregowda, were addressing a press conference at Pathrakartara Bhavan here yesterday.

They said that not only would they protest during the Parivartana Yatra in which BJP National President Amit Shah, Union Ministers Prakash Javadekar and Ananth Kumar are participating but if the issue is not resolved by then, they would organise a huge protest when Prime Minister Narendra Modi participates in the Yatra on Feb.4 in Bengaluru.

According to the students, in spite of the BJP at the Centre and the Congress in the State being in power respectively, they failed to get recognition to the University. "The students continue to suffer because of the negligence of both the parties for no fault of theirs. We will launch a campaign against both these parties and ask people not to support either of the parties in the upcoming polls," they said.

"If Prakash Javadekar and Higher Education Minister Basavaraj Rayareddy wanted they could have resolved the issue long back. The very fact that they are giving lip service to the problems shows their attitude," they charged.

They also threatened to protest against the Congress during its 'Sadhana Samavesha.'

In June 2015, UGC discontinued recognition of all the courses offered by KSOU from the year 2012-13. Owing to de-recognition, no students have been getting jobs and lakhs of degree holders are in trouble as their certificates are not being considered, they said.

Sale of Malaysian sand by MSIL delayed in city

However, when Star of Mysore spoke to National Joint Secretary of CREDAI K. Sriram in city this morning, he said, "Majority of the builders in Mysuru have stopped using river sand since the last four years and we all depend only on M-sand (manufactured sand). Many state-of-the-art M-sand units have been set up in the city."

Asked about the move of the government to introduce Malaysian sand, he said that it is very difficult to replicate nature. The natural sand which is extracted from the riverbed has infinite number of edges while M-sand has finite number of edges. "Hence, in that sense natural sand is good. However, I do not foresee mass scale usage of Malaysian sand, except by a few people who build private homes. Besides, a ton of M-sand costs Rs.1,300 while the Malaysian sand costs Rs.4,200 a ton," he added.

Spouse can't take caste of other spouse after marriage to knock-off reservation benefit

Caste is determined by birth not by marriage, says SC

New Delhi, Jan.22- The Supreme Court, on Friday, refused to allow a woman to take benefit of reservation just because she was married to a man who belonged to the Scheduled Castes (SC), asserting that caste is determined by birth and not by marriage.

"There cannot be any dispute that the caste is determined by birth and the caste cannot be changed by marriage with a person of Scheduled Caste. Undoubtedly, the appellant was born in "Agarwal" family, which falls in general category and not in SC..."

The Court was hearing a petition filed by one Sunita Singh challenging a judgement passed by Allahabad High Court, which had upheld her termination from the post of Vice-Principal of Kendriya Vidyalaya (KV) at Pathankot, Punjab.

Sunita Singh had been granted a caste certificate by the District Magistrate in 1991. Relying on this certificate and her academic qualifications, she was appointed as a Post Graduate Teacher in 1993. She also completed an M.Ed. during the course of her service. However, two decades later, her appointment was cancelled on the ground that she had taken the benefit of reservation without belonging to the Scheduled Castes.

While the Supreme Court upheld her termination, it directed that the order of her termination be modified to one of compulsory retirement, in view of the fact that she had served as a teacher and Vice-Principal of the school "without any black spot in her service career for about 21 years."

Taking a lenient view, the Court ruled, "...we have also kept in mind that the appellant has neither played fraud nor misrepresented before any of the authorities for getting the caste certificate and while continuing in service based on the caste certificate. No questions were raised against her till the complaint in question came to be lodged, even when the authorities had seen the High School Certificate, Marks Sheet etc. showing her caste as Agarwal at the initial stage." It, therefore, modified the impugned order to that extent, but clarified that this shall not be treated as a precedent.

Apex Court stays death sentence of murder convict

He had murdered five persons including a girl in Kollegal in May 2015

Murugeshan

Chamarajanagar, Jan. 22 (KS)- The Supreme Court has stayed the death sentence of a murder convict, who had brutally killed five persons including an eight-year-old girl in May 2015 at a village in Kollegal taluk near here.

The accused, identified as 49-year-old Murugeshan, a native of Periyarnagar in Mettur taluk in Tamil Nadu, was found guilty of the crime by the Chamarajanagar Principal District and Sessions Court which had sentenced him to death on July 18, 2017.

He was found guilty of killing Rajendran (36), Rajamma (36), Rajamma's daughter Roja (8), Kashi alias Shivakumar (38) and Shivamma (37) on the night of May 12, 2105.

Questioning the judgement, the counsel for Murugeshan had filed a petition at the High Court, which had upheld the judgement of Chamarajanagar Principal District and Sessions Court on Oct. 25, 2017, following which a petition was filed at the Supreme Court.

The Three-Judge Bench, headed by Supreme Court Chief Justice Dipak Misra, who heard the arguments, has stayed the death sentence.

The victims were part of a group of 15 agricultural labourers from Andhiyur in Tamil Nadu's Erode district, who had been brought by Rajendran, a contractor, to work in the sugarcane farm at Harale village in Kollegal taluk.

On the fateful night, when the labourers had retired for the day with a few even sleeping under the skies, Murugeshan killed Rajendran and Rajamma with a sickle and hacked Kashi and Shivamma before killing Roja for seeing him commit the crime, according to Police investigation.

The investigations had revealed that Murugeshan, who had separated from his wife, was eyeing Rajamma, one of the victims, but the latter had spurned his advances and was having an illicit relationship with Rajendran. Similarly, Shivamma was having an affair with Kashi. Murugeshan was upset over the illicit relationship between the two couples.

Though Murugeshan had tried to flee to Tamil Nadu soon after committing the crime, the Kollegal Rural Police had nabbed him in Hanur on May 13, 2015.
